

Swimming Pool Permission Form

Revised May 25, 2022

Children 10-12 may come to the pool on their own without a parent or responsible person 16 years or older if they have appropriate swimming skills to be safe at the pool and have a signed permission slip by a parent or legal guardian. The resident child is not authorized to bring any guests. The pool management company or one of its lifeguards have the authority to revoke this privilege at any time and the child/children will only be admitted to the pool with an authorized adult.
